

Fortinet Product Accessories

Expansion or spare peripherals

Fortinet offers various associated accessories for its products. These accessories meet the stringent qualifications to ensure reliability and compatibility, giving our customer peace of mind while they acquire for spares or as expansions. The accessories available are power supplies and cords, cable sets, mounting kits and rails, hard drives, etc.

Hard Disks

Organizations may acquire additional hard drives as spares for rapid replacements or to expand storage capacity on their Fortinet products. These 3.5" SATA hard drives are designed to support critical enterprise applications where reliability, high capacity, and performance are required. They may come with appropriate disk trays for hot-pluggable slots.
